Record number of grants offered by California Arts Council

In July, 2016, the California Arts Council's annual budget increased from $7 million to $17 million. For fiscal year 2017- 18 new categories of funding have been created for under served communities including LGBT, people of color, veterans, immigrants, refugees and people with disabilities. Check out grant descriptions, deadlines and application materials at <http://www.cac.ca.gov/programs/>

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM THE CALIFORNIA ARTS COUNCIL:

"As of today, six of our grant programs are now open for applications - with eight more opening in the near future. As a result of increased state arts funding, this year we'll award more grants than we have in 13 years as we support projects in fourteen unique grant programs. In fact, we may award as many as 1,000 grants this fiscal year...that's more than triple the number of grants awarded annually in the past!"
