

CA LGBT Arts Alliance Newsletter

The California LGBT Arts Alliance wants to wish everyone a safe and happy holiday season! We hope you all enjoy this holiday season and are surrounded by love and happiness. After this year it is important to remember to share and give kindness to everyone around you. Thank you all for being part of the Alliance family and for supporting our mission of advocating for LGBTQ+ creatives in SoCal. The Alliance is grateful for our supporters, sponsors, partners, and community members for your continued collaboration and look forward to more in 2022!

Pioneers of Queer Cinema

January 7, 2022 - February 27, 2022

Celebrating its 15th anniversary in 2020, the Outfest UCLA Legacy Project has made a priority of documenting, preserving and exhibiting LGBTQ+ moving images from an inspiring collection of over 40,000 holdings, now the largest publicly accessible collection of LGBTQ+ films in the world.

The organizers and supporters of this series hope to introduce and reacquaint audiences with landmark queer works and their makers, while inspiring new conversations and renewed action surrounding the complex obstacles LGBTQ+ communities continue to face.

Comedy Show

January 8, Palm Springs

Back by popular demand, actor & comedian JASON STUART! Last summer, he headlined (and sold out) the beautiful new DESERT ROSE PLAYHOUSE with his stand up comedy act!

One journalist commented "If Joan Rivers & Don Rickels had a gay son, it would be comedian Jason Stuart".

M.C. will be the super funny Melissa Greenberg.

All seats get cocktail service before and during shows!
