Archival Intimacies: Queering South/East Asian Diasporas

Exhibition

March 3, 2022 to May 27, 2022

ONE Archives at the USC Libraries (ONE) in collaboration with USC Visions and Voices, USC Pacific Asia Museum (PAM) and South Asian American Digital Archive (SAADA) is pleased to present Archival Intimacies: Queering South/East Asian Diasporas— a multi-part exhibition and series of programs.

At ONE, three artists-in-residence, Prima Jalichandra-Sakuntabhai, Vinhay Keo, and Pamila Matharu, have developed new works in response to the archive. These new works reflect their engagement with histories of immigration, family histories—both blood and chosen—diaspora, and queerness. Accompanying these new works is an exhibition examining the history of Satrang, an organization supporting queer South Asian communities in Southern California and placing its evolution in context of broader histories.
