Hollywood Chinese 15th Anniversary Arthur Dong & Academy Museum of Motion Pictures November 4 Los Angeles

Join me, Arthur Dong, for the 15th anniversary of HollywoodChinese.com — the opening night feature of my curated series at the Academy Museum of Motion Pictures that celebrates AND critiques the Chinese depiction in American feature films during cinema's first 100 years.

Hollywood Chinese is a captivating revelation on a little-known chapter of cinema: the Chinese in American feature films. From the first Chinese American film produced in 1917, to Ang Lee's triumphant Brokeback Mountain nine decades later, Hollywood Chinese brings together a fascinating portrait of actors, directors, writers, and iconic images to show how the Chinese have been imagined in movies, and how filmmakers have and continue to navigate an industry that was often ignorant about race, but at times paradoxically receptive.

San Francisco Transgender Film Festival

November 10 - 20 San Francisco

For 25 years, SFTFF has screened films that promote the visibility of transgender and gender variant people and challenge the mainstream media's negative stereotypes of our communities. We provide opportunities for transgender and gender variant media artists, build community through our film and performance events, and engage our audiences in cross-community dialogue.
