Drag March LA: The March on Santa Monica Blvd April 9, 2023

The Los Angeles LGBT Center will host the all-ages Drag March LA in West Hollywood.

This year alone, there are over 400 pieces of anti-LGBTQ+ legislation on the books. If it wasn't clear already, we hope it is now: This is a crucial moment for our community. That's why the Los Angeles LGBT Center, in partnership with local activists, organizations, and Angelenos like you will be at the #DragMarch in solidarity. On Easter Sunday (yes, that's intentional!), we'll gather in our Sunday Best to show the world what we're made of—and that we're not going back. Hear from organizers about how to get involved in the fight for justice, and march along your best friends and neighbors. We'll see you at the #DragMarch.

Supporters of Drag March LA include the following:

Asian Americans Advancing Justice Southern California
Bienestar Human Services
CA LGBTQ Health and Human Services Network
Equality California
LGBTQ Center Orange County
LGBTQ+ Community Center of the Desert
ProjectQ
Racial & Ethnic Mental Health Disparities Coalition (REMHDCO)

Artist Calls & Grants

The California Arts Council (CAC) maintains a database dedicated to opportunities for artists, from local to global, including gallery calls.

ARTIST CALLS AT CAC

In addition to its own grant program offerings, the California Arts Council (CAC) keeps a database dedicated to arts and culture funding opportunities available from the field at large.

Additional Artist Calls & Grants

Self Help Graphics & Art is now accepting resumes for the role of Executive Director.

Los Angeles: Self Help Graphics & Art (SHG) is dedicated to the production, interpretation and distribution of prints and other art media by Chicana/o, Latinx, and other artists inspired by the social justice imperative of the Chicano Movement.

SHG has reached a historic juncture. It has been operating for 50 years, it outright owns its own building and is planning for the renovation of its home. This moment will find a new executive director inheriting a Self Help Graphics that is fiscally sound with a robust, talented and cohesive staff.

Position will remain open until filled.

TRANSformative Storytelling Project Boulder, CO

Deadline: two deadlines

Motus Theater, with the support of a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts, is seeking 5-8 transgender and non-binary leaders to develop artfully crafted personal stories about their hopes, dreams, and experiences of negotiating oppression and liberation.

The project builds upon Motus Theater's specialty: developing artfully crafted autobiographical monologues with leaders on the frontlines of violence and oppression in the U.S., putting them center stage as the protagonists in the American drama.

Information Sessions:

Thursday, March 2nd 6-7pm MST (8-9 pm EST/5-6pm PST)

Saturday, March 25th 10-11am MST (12-1 pm EST/9-10am PST)
